

Deed Vest

Senior Consultant to EA Limited

Mr. Vest serves as Executive Director Enterprise Support to EAI, the U.S. based contractor to EA Ltd. Vest brings 40 years administrative management expertise to EA Ltd. His broad career includes all areas of security, organization development, facilities, training, enterprise quality and proposal support including the Management Volume for the Rockwell OSC space station ops proposal to NASA. During 24 years in the global space flight contracting business, his teams received outstanding NASA evaluations, the prestigious security Cogswell Award and many other recognitions. A President's Award winner at Rockwell Space Operations, Deed was a team member establishing United Space Alliance (USA) for integrated Shuttle-ISS ops with expanded duties such as inner-security to NASA KSC, export control development and regulation, aviation and international negotiations.

Mr. Vest's career began in airline management plus executive roles at M.D. Anderson Medical Research Institute such as Associate VP Administration. His recognitions include BA Cum Laude (Math) and MBA (Honors Fraternity) from The University of Texas, Austin, followed by multiple professional education, service on USG initiatives, ASIS Counsels for Terrorism and for Defense Intelligence, 4th degree judo/jujitsu blackbelts and at DHS request chaired the ASIS Terrorism Response Guideline post 9-11.